

ALL BRITONS WEEP

BECAUSE THE DUCHESS OF TECK IS NO MORE

Which Performance, From a Non-British Standpoint, Comments Itself as Unusually Ridiculous as Well as Unusually Good. By All Kinds of Accidents She Became Famous, and That's All There Is to Her—Cheers for the Gordon Highlanders—Painful Scandal at a Microscopic German Court—Gossip of London

(Copyright 1897 by the Associated Press.) London, Oct. 30.—The weather here and on the continent continues almost as mild as in summer, but London on Thursday was visited by a regular mid-winter fog lasting nearly twenty-four hours. Traffic was greatly delayed there by and there were numerous accidents. Owing to the death of the Duchess of Teck, all of the great social arrangements have been cancelled at court and general mourning will be ordered. The newspapers are making a great deal of fuss over the death of the duchess, appearing with turned rules, and pages of obituary matter. Her royal highness was undoubtedly a good woman; but certainly she was not the idol of the people, which the papers make her out to be, and her great virtues were not recognized until by the marriage of her daughter to the Duke of York, she became the mother of a future queen of England. Prior to that the Tecks had for many years been in great financial difficulties, and occupied an unenviable position among royals, both here and on the continent.

The story of the charge of Gordon Highlanders across the fire zone at the storming of Dargal Ridge, which has come in by the India, reveals many instances of great personal heroism and has produced an extraordinary wave of patriotism throughout Great Britain. At the music hall and theatres everything which can be possibly construed into an allusion of the bravery and dash of the Highlanders is rapturously applauded.

A painful scandal is agitating one of the minor courts of Germany closely connected with the British royal family. The eldest daughter of the heir presumptive is reported to be in a delicate condition of health, the cause of her trouble being the lack of the court, whom she insisted upon marrying. The czar and czarina yesterday concluded their visit to the Grand Duke and Grand Duchess of Hesse at Darmstadt. While there their Russian majesty strolled about the streets and forests; but two Russian police officers always kept him in sight. The imperial party visited the theatre at Darmstadt almost nightly, and suddenly, in the middle of the first act, the gas, except on the stage, was turned down to the lowest point, in order that the imperial party might be able to see themselves unobserved.

The German postoffice is experimenting with an invention, an electric typewriter apparatus, which at a cost of $125 can be connected with a telegraph wire and the message which is typed off on the keyboard at one end is produced at the other.

A Vanity Fair reviewer the hunting prospects of Melton-Mowbray, is sarcastic in its reference to the Duke of Marlborough, who has just arrived there "coming down in dual fashion by special train. As a hunting man, the duke is a credit to his bootmaker, for no one wears more perfect boots."

A curious story of the famous telegram of Emperor Kruger, of the South African republic, after the capture of Dr. Jameson and his followers, was heard in the courts on Wednesday last when a German merchant attributed his bankruptcy to decrease of business owing to the prejudice this telegraphic message of sympathy with the Transvaal created in London against Germany.

A paragraph appears in the papers calling attention to the neglect of Thackeray's grave in Kensal Green cemetery. It is overrun with ivy, which obscures the inscription.

Sir Charles Dilke, the well known radical member of parliament, addressing a big meeting at Newcastle this week, said he had hitherto never believed in the embittered feeling between capital and labor or that capital oppressors labor "as it does in America." But, he added, recent events showed the uprising of the bad American spirit here, particularly in the shipbuilding and engineering trades.

At St. Paul's church, Knightsbridge, today, there was a fashionable assembly, at the wedding of Miss Nora Meigs to Mr. Herbert Alfrey. The bride is the daughter of a prominent American, John C. Meigs, who has long been a resident of London. The wedding was attended by a number of prominent English and American friends of the couple.

The Criterion, St. James and Drury Lane theatres have been the chief theatrical centres of attraction this week. The run of "The Fantôme" at the Strand theatre has been closed abruptly. Charles Froham's manager threw down into a panic by the censor on Tuesday, who returned the curtain down on "The First Born," entitled "A Night Session."

SIMPLE AT FIRST

It is foolish to neglect any form of Piles—Cure Them at the Beginning. Piles are simple in the beginning and easily cured. They can be cured even in the worst stages, without pain or loss of blood, quickly, surely and completely. There is only one remedy that will do it—Pyramid Pile Cure.

It attacks the inflammation immediately, heals the irritated surface and with continued treatment reduces the swelling and puts the membranes into good, sound, healthy condition. The cure is thorough and permanent. Here are some voluntary and unswerving testimonials we have lately received: Mrs. M. C. Hinkley, 601 Mississippi St., Indianapolis, Ind., says: "Have been a sufferer from the pain and annoyance of piles for fifteen years. The Pyramid Pile Cure and Pyramid Pills gave me immediate relief and in a short time a complete cure."

Major Dean of Columbus, Ohio, says: "I wish to add to the number of certificates as to the benefits derived from the Pyramid Pile Cure. I suffered from piles for forty years, and from itching piles for twenty years, and two boxes of the Pyramid Pile Cure have effectively cured me."

NO WASTE OF WORDS

Evidence Which is Right to the Point and Reliable

Judge Frank Ives of District Court of Crookston, Minn., says: For some time I have used Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets with seeming great benefit, with few exceptions. I have not been so free from indigestion in twenty-five years.

Geo. W. Roosevelt, U. S. Consul to Brussels, Belgium: Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, safe, pleasant to take, convenient to carry, give keen appetite, perfect digestion.

Mr. W. D. Tomlin, Mechanical Engineer, Duluth, Minn.: One box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets has done its work, and I am again gaining flesh and strength.

O. E. Ransom, Houstonville, Ky.: I was distressed and annoyed for two years with throwing up food, after two or three times a day; but with no certainty of retaining a meal if I ate one. Four boxes of the tablets from my druggist have fully cured me. I find them pleasant to take, convenient to carry.

Rev. G. D. Brown, Maryland, Wis.: The effect of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is simply marvelous; a quite hearty dinner of broiled beef steak causes no distress since I began their use.

Over six thousand people in the state of Michigan alone in 1894 were cured of stomach troubles by Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

Full sized packages may be found at all druggists at 50 cents, or sent by mail on receipt of price from Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich.

With his disapproval, commenting that it was too Frenchy. Lescoq, the author, rushed to the censor and requested him to point out the obnoxious passages which proved to be too numerous. Lescoq then re-wrote the play over night, and the censor withdrew his veto.

There has been quite a war on a small scale over the rival Chinese plays, "The First Born" and "The Cat and the Cherub." Messrs. Brady and Froham have led the opposing forces. Early in the week Brady announced that "The Cat and the Cherub" would be produced here on November 1, and on the following day Froham advertised that his entire American company would appear at the Globe in "The First Born" on November 1, and that a week later it would be transferred to the Duke of York's theatre. But immediately afterwards Brady announced "The Cat and the Cherub" would be produced on Saturday, October 30, so as to forestall Froham.

There was a stormy episode in the Potter-Bellew company this week. Elwood, an English actor, quarreled with Mrs. Potter, attempted to divorce her, and called her a liar, for which Bellew threw him out of the theatre. Elwood now threatens to horsewhip Mrs. Potter, and as Williamson and Musgrave the managers of the company, refuse to discharge Elwood, he is appearing nightly with Mrs. Potter and Bellew.

He Has Nearly All of the Emblems of a Hero. Honolulu, Oct. 23, via San Francisco, Oct. 30.—Major S. A. MORTGAGED TO HITCHHIKERS

Revenues of the Republic of San Domingo. Washington, Oct. 30.—According to a message just received at the department of state from Consul Powell, dated Port au Prince, October 18, an English syndicate has secured charge of the customs revenue of the republic of San Domingo for a period of 100 years, by making a loan of $7,500,000 to the local government.

According to the terms of the loan, the syndicate takes charge of the customs houses of the republic, receives and collects all duties on imports and exports and pays over to the government a certain percentage of the revenue thus derived. This syndicate agrees to pay all the outstanding obligations of the government and to pay the amount of the debt owed to the American syndicate that at present holds control of the customs revenue. They are also given control of the railroad running to Puerto Plata, and authority to build other railroads to the interior or to such other places as they may desire. The government concedes to them the right to make improvements as to efficiency of the case may warrant. It is also stipulated that the government shall not seek to secure another loan from any other source under five years. The bonds of this syndicate are $100 at interest of 6 per cent per annum.

Mr. Powell adds that the English consul left on the morning of the date of his letter on steamer to sign the protocol of agreement on the part of the syndicate. Mr. Powell also expresses the fear that some concessions have been made on the part of Port au Prince that the English government may secure quasi-possession of Samana bay.

BUT FOR THE TIES OF KINDRED

John Ball Would Have Landed on Uncle Sam Long Ago. Victoria, B. C., Oct. 30.—Sir Charles Tupper, leader of the opposition in the Dominion provincial parliament, addressed a very large meeting here tonight. Referring to the seceding question, he said that a greater indignity had never been perpetrated than the seizure of Canadian leaders by the United States and it was only through the fact of kinship that Great Britain had dealt so leniently with the United States in the matter.

Canada was working urgently to prevent the United States from stopping pelagic sealers, which would give America a monopoly so long as they maintained a firm stand. In his many brilliant speeches in Great Britain, Premier Laurier had not said a word about the progress of Canada, evidently because he knew progress was brought about by actions of the Conservatives. Tupper spoke strongly in favor of a preferential trade in the empire and said that although Laurier had advocated it before election, he had rejected a proposal from the Duke of Devonshire that would have brought it about. The present government could not claim credit for denouncing the German and Belgian treaties, this having been brought about at the request of the premier of all the colonies. He closed with a general denunciation of the present government and prophesied that at the first opportunity the people would sweep it from power.
